Checklist for successfully filing the I-130 immigrant visa petition for your spouse, in Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Before coming to the Consulate General in Amsterdam, please prepare and bring the following:

- ☐ — Your U.S. passport;
- ☐ — Your Dutch residence permit or other proof you have resided in The Netherlands for at least six months, e.g. your Dutch passport if you have dual citizenship;
- ☐ — Your relative's passport;
- ☐ — Your relative's Dutch residence permit if s/he is not Dutch;
- ☐ — Form I-130, duly completed and signed by you the U.S. citizen petitioner. The form can be downloaded from www.uscis.gov
- ☐ — 1 page of Form G-325 A, duly completed and signed by you the U.S. citizen petitioner. The form can be downloaded from www.uscis.gov
- ☐ — 1 page of Form G-325 A, duly completed and signed by your relative. The form can be downloaded from www.uscis.gov
- ☐ — Your original marriage certificate;
- ☐ — Your original divorce decree(s) or certificate(s), or death certificate of previous spouse, if applicable;
- ☐ — Your relative's original divorce decree(s) or certificate(s), or death certificate of previous spouse, if applicable;
- ☐ — An original sworn translation of any of the above document if not originally in English or Dutch;
- ☐ — One plain photocopy of every one of the original documents mentioned above;
- ☐ — A 2" x 2" color passport photo of you (see our photo instructions page);
- ☐ — A 2" x 2" color passport photo of your relative;
- ☐ — The appropriate fee. Remember you can pay in cash dollars or euroequivalent or credit card only. You cannot pay this fee by PIN-card (see our immigrant visa fee section).

You can present your I-130 without appointment on any Monday, Tuesday or Thursday afternoon immigration walk-in opening hours, 1:30 to 3:00 pm.
Your relative will be most welcome to come with you but his/her presence is not required. Please check this website for holiday or other closures before coming in.